'Wild Bill' Davison Unable to Come; Final Charlatans Performance Tonite

Spring Houseparty will begin officially tonight with the Charlatans final production of The Beautiful People. Although many houses have scheduled outdoor events, the weather forecast is disappointing with predictions of cool temperatures and cloudy skies.

Tomorrow morning, at 10:00 behind the Chi Psi Lodge, Will Alger and his Salt City Five will hold forth in a jazz and beer party sponsored by the Social Committee. Alger and his band will act as a replacement for Wild Bill Davidson who was unable, due to illness, to come to the Hill as earlier announced.

Comer Coppie, chairman of the Social Committee, said that the Salt City Five was well received when they played here in the Spring Jazz Concert Weekend April 16. Over 500 people attended their concert in Commons.

Coppie continued, "The overwhelming success which the Salt City Five had when they played here before should be sustained when they return for a three hour concert." The band, which has recently finished a month's engagement at Palm Beach, is one of the best concert jazz bands in America according to Coppie.

The Charlatans' production, "The Beautiful People," is directed by Ben Carroll, '56, and is a study of life of an unusual family living in California. The cast is headed by Ed Smith, '56, as Owen Webster; Mrs. Virginia Park as Agnes Webster; Gary Tischler, '57, as Jonah Webster; and Mrs. Ethel Cameron as Harmony Blueblossom.

Large Crowd Expected

A particularly large crowd is expected at tonight's performance, for almost all tickets had been reserved by Monday. After the play, all fraternity houses will be open, and the usual house-hopping will take place far into the night.

In the event of rain, the jazz concert by the Salt City Five will be held in the Alpha Delt bar at the same time, 10 a. m.

Tomorrow afternoon, after the jazz concert has ended at 1:00 there will be several athletic events on the Hill. The track team, which beat Union handily last Saturday, will run against Ithaca College in their second meet of the year tomorrow at 2:30. The lacrosse team will face Cortland at the same time. At 2:00 the Hamilton golfers will tee off against Rochester.

In the evening most students will retire to their houses for the traditional cocktail, banquets, and adnces.

Remainder of Cast

Making up the rest of the cast for the Charlatans' play are Al Prettyman, '56, as William Prim; Leon Gane, '58, as Dan Hillboy; Ted Davis, '56, as Father Hogan; Paul Carter, '56, as Harold Webster; and Jim Holmlund, '58, as Steve.

The art work has been done by Al Stripp, '56, and Mike Nadel, '56. Nick Martianoff, '57, is in charge of the lighting, and Frank Rizzo, '58, has designed the set, which was constructed by Jim Kehoe, '56, and his crew.

Bob Frese, '56, is in charge of tickets for the production; Mike Sundell, '56, program; and George Boveroux, '56, posters. Walt Deisseroth, '58, is in charge of the props for the play.

Charlatans' Cast Competent In "The Beautiful People"

By Frank Seidner

The indefatigable Charlatans, scions to the tradition of Woolcott, R. B. Rudd, and William Ezra Woodman have again emerged with a variegated display of histrionics in their spring production for the joy and edification of students, faculty, houseparty dates and "friends of the college," all these elements being as usual, cordially invited.

In this, their forty-sixth season, the Charlatans have wisely descended from the ponderous heights of Shakespeare and Shaw where they have dwelt in the last few springs and come upon the lesser and more bewildering doings of William Saroyan. Whether the choice of "The Beautiful People" was a sage one can be queried. For this nonsensical little fantasy concocted by the California screwball is unevenly constructed and though at times delightful,, is more often a watery blend of over-sweet nothingness. We are happy, nevertheless, that the Charlatans have tried a change of pace.

Indeed, and we are glad to say it, the Charlatans have done remarkably well considering the play's limitations. The first scene especially lacks substance; it drags, is talky and requires a lot of good acting to put it over. Ed Smith almost manages to do the trick. As the year-old Owen Webster, who writes books of one sylable, Smith maintains enough bounce and bucolic charm to offset the hugeness of his physique. He is one giant of a 15-year-old boy.

There is more movement in the second scene and in the second act. Virginia Park and Al Prettyman are largely responsible for some of the more scintillating goings-on. Both are excellent. Prettyman as a good-natured corporation vice-president hams exactly as needed—precisely and profusely. Mrs. Park as the daughter "Saint Agnes of the Mice," is lightfooted, charming, and efficiently "girlish."

Gary Tischler does an adequate, if uninspired job as the head of the family which lives on the pension of a dead man. Ted Davis seemed bored with his role as a Catholic priest but bit his lip and tried hard to look morose. Mrs. Cameron was stiff in the part of the little old lady; and Leon Gane, who according to the program is a freshman, looked as if he thought he was still down at the Inn. Paul Carter lends a good, melancholy note on the trumpet.

Ben Carroll, the director, does a fine job of keeping the whole thing moving as well as Saroyan's uneven writing will allow. He might, perhaps, have done a little more to push along the first act.

When the curtains were first drawn there was a smattering of applause. We assumed that this was meant for the set, and were duly puzzled because the set looked rather unfinished and prefabricated, this despite the scene being laid in an old house. We guessed that it was all right, though, because it was certainly contemporary and was probably

Rev. Colin Miller Slated To Become New Chapel Dean

The Reverend Colin Miller has been appointed Dean of the Hamilton Chapel. He will also serve as Associate Professor of Philosophy and Religion.

Mr. Miller has spoken on the Hill twice this year. He gave a sermon in Chapel this fall and recently spoke to the Chapel congregation at its annual banquet.

Mr. Miller will succeed William Hamilton who resigned as Chapel Dean in 1953 to become professor of Theology at Colgate-Rochester Divinity School.

A native of Glasgow, Mr. Miller received his M.A. and B.D. from the University of Glasgow. His Master's Degree was granted with high honors in Moral Philosophy. Active in many groups, he played rugby, was a member of the Student Representative Council, University Magazine staff, and the Church Worship Society. He was also secretary and president of the Theological Students' Council.

Following service on the staff of the Cathedral in Glasgow, and a parish in his native Scotland, he came to Ottawa, Canada, in 1948, as minister of the Knox Presbyterian Church, the largest church of his denomination in the city.

He is the author of one book, published by Oxford University Press on the Liturgy of the Scottish Church. Of a scholarly turn of mind, he has wanted more time for study and writing than the busy city parish in North America privides. He is 42 years old, married and the father of four children.

The Interfraternity Sing will be held on Wednesday, May 11, at 8 p. m. at Sigma Phi.

Students Change Court Constitution

Students voted a change in the election procedure of the Honor Court in Thursday Chapel. The new amendment is designed to assure the Court an experienced chairman and to give the Court a sufficiently wide choice for a new chairman.

Article I, Sec. 4, of the Honor Court Constitution now reads, "If one or both junior members leave school upon completion of their junior year, the chairman shall be chosen by the retiring committee from the newly elected senior representatives.

Was Los shown throwing Paul McGiffin last week after Chapel. Al Shaler was tapped yesterday to complete the six man group.

Students Elect Bruck, Hansen, Connor, Smalley to Positions

Robert Connor, '56, Dave Smalley, '56, Carl Hansen, '57, and Hal Bruck, '58, were elected to the Student Council in Chapel Thursday.

They, together with the class presidents, Pete Eckel, '56, Jerry VanDijk, '57, and John Driscoll, '58, and the president of the IFC will form the Student Council next year.

Connor, a TKE, is the Associate Editor of the Spectator, Secretary-Treasurer of the Debate Club and was recently re-elected Secretary-Treasurer of his class. His home is in Worcester, Mass. He is also a member of the Chapel board and has served this year as President of the Student Christian Association. He was opposed in the election by Bill Barber and Bruno Calapietro.

Rod Cooke, '56, was elected president of Delta Upsilon at a meeting May 3. Other officers included Fred Houtenbrink, '56, vice-president; Phil Rogers, '58, recording secretary; Dave Moffett, '56, treasurer and John Hobbins, '58, corresponding secretary.

Smalley is a member of Alpha Delt. He starred this year as goalie for the soccer team and will be captain of the team next year. Active in other sports, he is playing defense for the lacrosse team and is president of the Sailing Club for the next year. He has been secretary of the club and also sings in the choir. His home is in Larchmont, New York. Also running in this race was Frank Giruzzi, Reed Hand, Peter Dayton, and Bill Fivaz.

Carl Hansen was recently tapped for Was Los. He is a D.U. coming from West Hampton Beach, Long Island. Besides playing halfback on the football team he is also treasurer of the Block H Club. He was vice-president of his class and a member of D.T. He defeated Don Spector, Joby Burns, Pete O'Hara, Al Shaler, Al McGann, and Paul McGiffin.

Bruck lives in Newark, New Jersey. He is a member of DKE where he was president of the pledge class. He is a football halfback and a member of the Block H Club. He has served this year as a representative to the Freshman Council. He is running the 100 and 220 yard races in track besides competing in the broad jump. His opponents were Rick Hatch, Dave McMillan, and Tom Briaddy.

Rev. McCracken, Praised by "Life", To Speak Sunday

Robert J. McCracken, pastor of Riverside Church, named by Life as "one of America's ten most outstanding preachers" will lead the Chapel service this Sunday.

Reverend McCracken received his Master of Arts in 1925 from the University of Glasgow, in his native Scotland. Three years later, upon receiving his Bachelor of Divinity Degree, he was ordained a Baptist minister. He was minister of two Scotch congregations before receiving a

Jim Magee Wins Danforth Award; Plans to Teach

James Magee, '55, has been awarded a William H. Danforth Scholarship.

The Danforth Scholarships have been established to encourage young men who realize the importance of Christian ideals in teaching and counselling on the college level. They offer grants up to $1800 per year.

Magee, one of 50 selected from over 400 applicants, will use the scholarship in attending Johns Hopkins University next year. He will study at the Advanced School for International Studies at Washington, D. C.

He hopes to enter the teaching profession in political science upon his graduation. While on the Hill, he has been made a member of Phi Beta Kappa. A Chi Psi, he has been especially active in the Debate Club. He is president of Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary forensic society. Magee is also a member of the International Relations Club. His home is in Rosemont, Pennsylvania.

teaching position at a Baptist theological seminary. It was while at this seminary that he accepted an offer to become an associate professor at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada.

In 1944, Reverend McCracken was made a full professor of Christian Theology and Philosophy at McMaster. He remained in this position until 1946 when he was named as pastor of the Riverside Church to succeed the retiring Doctor Harry Emerson Fosdick as second pastor of that churc. In the years that followed he received honorary degrees of Doctor of Divinity from McMaster, Bucknell University, and his alma mater, Glasgow.

On receiving his pastorate at the Riverside Church, Reverend McCracken stated what he believed were the five primary aims of the Christian Church: to worship God publicly, foster Christian character, to remake human nature, Christianize social institutions, and to build a universal church. In one of his early and most famous sermons he attacked Boredom as the "most dreaded of modern diseases" and claimed it was caused not so much by external conditions as much as by a "woefully small stock of ideas, interests, and emotions."

The Student Council has approved a series of amendments to the Constitution of the Student Body that would shorten the election period for Student Council and class officers.

The amendments, proposed by Pete Van Volkenburgh, '55, and approved by the Council, will be submitted to the student body for approval or rejection. The first amendment would shorten the period between the appointment of a freshman class elections Committee and the election of the class president. Another amendment would shorten the pre-election petition period in student council elections to seven days, rather than the present 14.

The council also approved the appointment of James Schade, '56, as chairman of next year's Campus Fund Drive. Schade was the treasurer of this year's drive.

Debate Club to Hold Election Of Officers at Annual Banquet

Debate Club will elect officers for 1955-56 at its annual banquet Thursday, May 12. Winding up the year's activities, the banquet will be held at Dibble's Inn at Vernon, N. Y.

Al Prettyman, '56, was elected speaker of the American Collegiate Mock Legislative Assembly held April 28, 29, and30. The speaker of the house is the highest official elected by the 75 delegates.

Gene Granof, '56, and Gary Tischler, '57, also represented Hamilton at the assembly. Granof served as chairman of his committee and Tischler was elected to the planning committee for next year's assembly.

The mock assembly is an annual affair held in the state legislative chambers in Albany. The members are divided into two parties and take part in political campaigning as well as law-making. Prettyman and Granof both appeared on televised excerpts of the campaigning.

Tennis Team Stays Unbeaten; Plays Hobart on Hill Courts

The Blue tennis team was highly favored to take their sixth straight win of the year, as they played Hobart at home today. The netmen took victories number five and six at the expense of Utica College and Rochester respectively this past week.

Last Saturday, the team whitewashed Utica for the second time within 10 days. Although no match went beyond two sets, the Hamiltonians were harder pressed than in their first encounter with the Pioneers.

In the number one singles, Harry Presberg took an 8-6, 6-3 win from Don Dobrovoic. John Roberts beat Ted Rush in another close match, 6-2, 7-5, and Captain Dick Miller won over Sampson, 6-3, 6-4. Craig Henzel, Chris Ravndal, and Tim Smelzer all won without losing more than one game in any set.

The Continentals had an easy time in the doubles, as Presburg and Miller, Henzel and Smelzer, and Gray and Cox teamed up for quick triumphs.

Hamilton won its sixth victory of the campaign with an 8-1 beating of Rochester. The score was not indicative of the hard fought contest which took three hours and 20 minutes to play.

The Yellowjackets garnered their lone win in the first singles, when Howard defeated Presberg, 6-4, 6-4. However, the Continentals clinched the meet victory by taking the next five singles matches.

Hamilton swept the three doubles matches, although Presberg and Miller, and Gray and Cox were extended to three sets.

Frank Giruzzi, '56, was elected president of the Squires Club Tuesday evening. Other officers elected were: Al Rothenberg, '56, vice-president; Don Spector, '57, treasurer; Mike Kaplan, '57, social chairman; Bart Denton, '56, and Burt Benjamin, '57, secretaries.

Strong Hitting Beats Hobart After Losses to RPI, Union

Golf Team Extends Undefeated String To 3 Yesterday

Face Rochester Here Tomorrow

The Hamilton golf team extended its win streak to three yesterday by toppling Cortland on the Cortland Country Club course 5½ to 3½. Co-medalists in the match were Dan Koehler and Dick Plotka, both shooting 78's on the par 72 layout.

Last Saturday the golfers set their season's record at two victories against one loss when they beat Union, 6-3, on the home links. Captain Dan Koehler won the low medal honors with a round of 72.

Koehler won his match 7 and 6. Other Hamilton wins were turned in by Taylor, 4 and 3, and Walsh, 8 and 7.

Hamilton swept the best ball play, with Walsh and Schade winning 7 and 6, as did Taylor and Plotka. Koehler and Woodward won by a 2 and 4 margin.

Continentals Down Union Track Team

The Hamilton track season opened impressively last Saturday as the Continentals swamped Union, 90-41. Coach Gene Long considered it the best Hamilton victory in three years, as a 22 year period of Union track domination was ended.

Hamilton garnered 11 first places as compared to only four for Union. In three events, the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and the broad jump, Hamilton men took the first three places. In addition, Pete Eld's two hurdle victories and the mile relay were done in record times, but Eld's records were disallowed because of a tail wind.

The sweep of the 100 yard dash was accomplished by Cline, Harwood, and Bruck, while Harwood, Carter, and Bruck took scoring honors in the 220. Ingraham took third in the 440, and Robinson won the 880. Parillo

After dropping two games on the road to Union, 4-3, and to RPI, 6-0, the Continentals returned to their winning ways by swamping Hobart, 8-5. Today the Blue played a strong team from Ithaca College, reported to be one of the best teams in the east.

Glezen Leads Attack

The sixteen hit attack was led by Captain John Glezen who went four for five at the plate, scored three runs and batted in another; and Al Olson, who smacked out a single and a triple. Both men have been the mainstay of the Hamilton team this year. Glezen is repeating his performance of last year by batting .409 while Olson is batting .429.

In the Hobart game the win went to Junior Ron Hovey, his second of the year as against one defeat. Although Hovey allowed 11 hits he was the master all the way, striking out three and walking none. Peter Comstock was the loser for Hobart.

Hobart Home Run

The Blue scored in the first inning and were never headed. John Glezen led off with a single, and after Skip Schuman had lined out, Olson tripled to left-center to score the first run. The Continentals scored two more runs, before Dick Rappaport sliced a home run for Hobart down the rightfield line. The Blue built up leads of 5-1, and 8-2 berore Hobart exploded for three runs in the bottom of the eighth.

At RPI, the Blue were at the complete mercy of ace Ray Hof-aimed at making Saroyan's "airy" play even more "airy." Nevertheless, we were glad no one leaned on it. The imaginative lighting helped to rectify the situation considerably.

We would also like to commend the Charlatans-behind-the-scene, those unsung heroes, who as always, were on the job. We only have space to name a few. Mike Sundell did a noble job as house manager and Jim Bromley pulled an admirable curtain. And of course, the omnipresent Bob Ward, who, as director of the whole organization has led the Charlatans through one more successful year.

The Charlatans will meet to elect next year's officers on Monday, May 9, at 5:15 p. m. in Truax Hall.

In the field events, McGiffin captured both the discus and the javelin. White came within two inches of breaking Earl Cline's broad jump record, and finished second to Romano in the shot put. Ibach, Nuccio, and Dawes tied for first place in the high jump, and Braunlich took third in the pole vault.
